

THE ESSENTIAL PACKING LIST

Leisure clothes. Bring clothes that you can wear again in a matter of days, especially if you're not (or rarely) doing laundry. As much as possible, limit jackets and coats – bring ones that will be your staple; you wouldn't want to bring much since they're heavy too.

- + Pajamas One set up to 7 days
- + Shorts One pair up to 3 uses
- + Bottoms/Jeans One pair jeans up to 7 uses
- + Tops/Casual shirts 1-2 per day according to usual usage
- + Jacket/Coat As limited as possible
- + Socks 1 pair per day
- + Underwear 1-2 pairs, per usage
- + Shoes/Sneakers Everyday wear, comfortable

Work. When traveling for work, the secret is to pack one set of clothes per meeting days – when you have to dress up a bit more for work. Choose a jacket or blazer that has a more versatile style to suit whatever outfit you put on specific days.

- + Shirt Bring 1-2 per work day, depends on usage
- + Pants/Skirt/Bottoms Bring 1-2 per work day, try to use 1 pair 2-3x
- + Shoes & socks 1 pair shoes for work days, 1 pair socks per day
- + Jacket/Blazer If possible, dedicate 1 jacket
- + Ties/Foulards 1-2 ties/foulards per day
- + Dress handkerchief 2 matching, one per day
- + Business cards Proportionate amount to stay & activities

Accessories. Keep these to a minimum, keep the more precious ones at home. It's so easy to lose jewelry when traveling so limit as possible.

- + Watch
- + Wallet
- + Glasses
- + Passport + visa
- + Belt
- + House keys
- + Sunglasses
- + Flight ticket & bookings

Toiletries. For short travels, stay with the basics and keep items to a minimum. If staying at a hotel with decent toiletries, go for those instead. For longer durations, consider going to the supermarket, and buying just enough for what you need. If you do bring your own, make sure to use travel-sized when packing light.

More tips. Having a very general check list has, without a doubt, proven to be a huge help when it comes to preparing for travels. And with today's day and age, it's much easier to get a hold of apps that can help travelers have a more hassle-free experience.

+ Automated Itinerary Generation

Have someone else look for the details in your emails. Get only the important information.

With TravelerBuddy, you can forward your booking confirmation emails to trips@travelerbuddy.com and have the app put the itinerary together for you.

+ Pre-Travel Checks

Check if you have everything you need before you travel. From passports to vaccinations.

The Pre-Travel Check feature of TravelerBuddy helps you stay ontop of these. Keep a record of checks on previous and upcoming trips too.

+ Online check-in

Know when your flight would be ready to check-in and do it online. Get it done now, worry less later.

Do your online flight check-in through the app. Easily copy all the details you need to fill in and you're a step closer to your flight.

+ Automated Packing List

Fill in the details and have the computer generate the list for you.

TravelerBuddy has a Packing List feature to help you make that list much faster. Add and edit items to customize the list. Print, save or share for future reference.
