

QA Automation Engineer

Why YOU should join Traveler Buddy?

As a team member, you are involved from start-to-end in the development and the enhancement of TravelerBuddy solution, so it's never boring. Being a big fish in a small pond allows you to learn a lot, develop, perform, and shine. We value a proactive mentality. If you can dream it – you can do it. We are here to support you. What our talents appreciate most is having a high degree of control and freedom within their job. You will have the necessary autonomy because we want to keep innovating our product.

You will work both in a multi-cultural, international team and as well as independently, by using best-in-class platforms. At TravelerBuddy, we believe in flexible working time – what counts for us most is that the work is done in the best quality and on time. We are convinced that you know best how to organize your working day. Like is, if you believe in lifetime learning, then you are the right place. We coach you on the job and give you access to leading digital learning solutions.

So, who is Traveler Buddy, the tech company who aspires to become the leading digital travel assistant? Traveler Buddy is an innovative, client-centric travel-tech company with roots in Switzerland and Singapore. For four years, we have been growing our team in Southeast Asia.

Using the latest technology allows us to combine humans with artificial intelligence. Developed by travel enthusiasts, Traveler Buddy has been attracting users in over 150 countries.

We not only do we create convenience with travel, but we also enable hassle- and paper-free travels. TravelerBuddy - the one-stop app for modern business and frequent leisure traveler.

If you aspire to shape the travel tech industry, then we should have a chat soon.

General Requirements – what we expect from YOU?

- Be able to jump right into a QA Automation Engineer role. Of course, you will get a proper onboarding and coaching.
- Be very assertive, resilient and articulate technology well. You need to understand the buzzwords not just say / use them.
- Be passionate, hardworking and a dedicated (PHD) team player. She/she must be motivated and willing to work a dynamic, innovative startup environment.
- Have profound practical experience of building comprehensive applications from end-to-end with a clear focus on user experience, usability, quality and performance.
- Have passion in learning new technologies, innovate and collaborate with other developers.
- Have high self-motivation, self-organization, & persistence with desire to outperform is key to excel at this role.
- Be capable and willing to work individually on a project or in a team with focus on delivery of high-quality results at time

Traveler Buddy Group Private Limited

10 Anson Road #12-14 International Plaza, Singapore 079903, Singapore
+65 8155 99 88, www.travelerbuddy.com

Company No: 201436821D

QA Automation Engineer requirements

- Knowledge of software QA methodologies, tools (incl automation) and processes.
- Experience in writing clear, concise and comprehensive test plans and test cases.
- Strong interpersonal skills with ability to work both independently and as part of a team.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills.
- Self-motivated, directed and passionate about what you do.
- Familiar with the following technologies:
 - Linux-based open source technology stack LAMP/LEMP
 - Android native (Java, Kotlin)
 - iOS native (Objective C, Swift)
 - Web technologies (PHP, HTML5, CSS3) and RESTful web service architecture.
 - Database SQL and noSQL (PostgreSQL, MySQL, MongoDB, DynamoDB, etc.)
- Strong hands-on experience with test automation tools for mobile and web such as TestProject, Appium, Selenium, MonkeyTalk, etc.)
- Experience with performance testing and analysis using JMeter, Grinder, LoadRunner or similar
- Strong experience of Agile (Scrum) Methodology is a plus.

Responsibilities

- Work with the development team to ensure quality during the Agile development lifecycle: architecture, story definition, development, testing, and release
- Participate in business requirements discussions for our products
- Estimate the time & resources required to perform the testing
- Proactively write cases for application flows and APIs of our products (functional, non-functional)
- Write test automation script accordingly and keep them maintained on a daily basis
- Develop the test plan for the tasks, dependencies and participants required
- Create test tools and processes to tackle the hard problems and help us scale effectively
- Organize and lead test plans walkthroughs, testing kick-off meeting & assign tasks to team members
- Act as the single point of contact between development lead, product manager and other testers
- Execute test cases and record test case results.
- Prioritize, plan and execute performance, load and stress tests on all software components
- Highlight defects during test execution phase for re-testing
- Generate reports including testing results, test case coverage, defects status etc.
- Organize the status meetings and send periodic status reports to the product manager.
- Ensure testing artefacts are maintained as product features added, modified and deprecated.
- Maintain requirements traceability matrix linking business requirements to features and test cases.
- Document, implement, monitor, and enforce industry best practice processes for testing

Traveler Buddy Group Private Limited

10 Anson Road #12-14 International Plaza, Singapore 079903, Singapore
+65 8155 99 88, www.travelerbuddy.com

Company No: 201436821D

Basic qualifications

- Bachelor in Computer Science or related
- Minimum 3 years in a Quality Assurance role for mobile and web, preferably in an enterprise-focused or start-up environment, as well as recent experience with test automation
- Minimum 2 years of experience in test automation mobile and web

Preferred Qualifications

- Basic experience with cloud technologies such as AWS
- Able to manage a small QA team (2-3 members) at a later stage

Terms	Non-competition clause for next 12 months for travel management apps 80% work from designated office, 20% possible from home
Contractual Period	Start after shared agreement; timely unlimited Contract can be ended from both parties within 1 month
Contact	Fabian Kaeser, CTO, fabian@travelerbuddy.com Juerg Kaufmann, CEO, juerg@travelerbuddy.com Mark Lombos, Country Head Philippines, mark@travelerbuddy.com